Business on track for success

In the space of five years, Roger Renshaw has bought a small business operating from a garage in Kangaroo Flat, more than tripled his turnover, increased stock fourfold, increased staff from one to 4.5, and has become the dominant force in the country Victoria market.

Within three months Roger moved Trackline to Eaglehawk Enterprise Park ("that was a great stepping stone") then 18 months later to even bigger premises in Baldock Court, Eaglehawk.

It's a long way from that Kangaroo Flat garage, but staying on track, Roger and his team have done it.
